Frequently Asked Questions
Questions related to Consultation

Q. I have had a previous bad experience with an astrologer. Are they all like that?

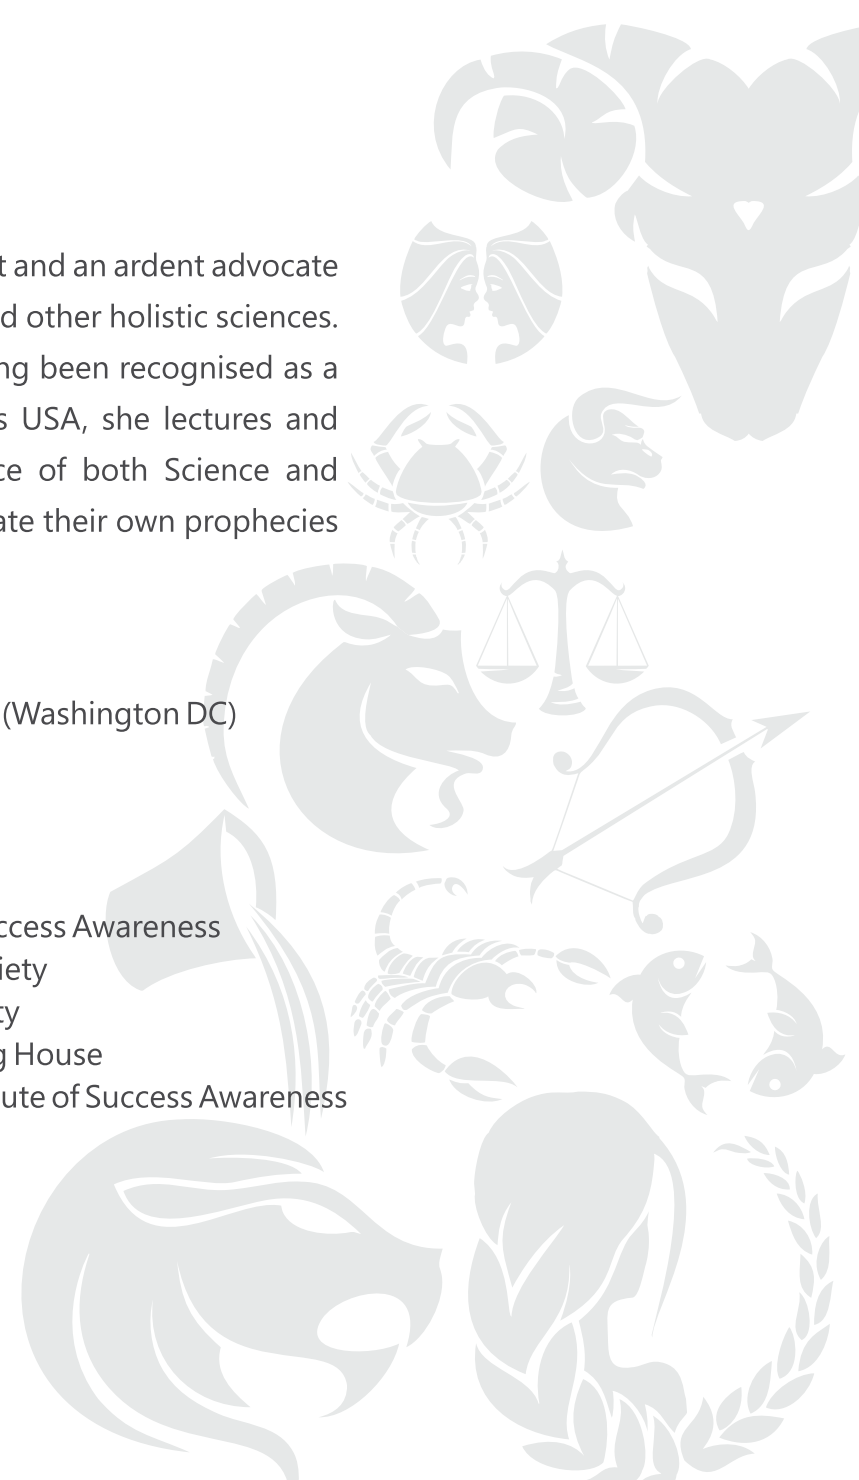

A. Fortunately no. Take any field of life there are some rotten apples. Most professional astrologers who have the purity of intent intact will sincerely want to help. Among the many useful tools for self-understanding and personal growth, astrology is a power tool. It's easy to be taken advantage off when you are not sure of what to expect from someone whose services you're buying. People tend to fall into two categories the superstitious who are gullible and the skeptics who refuse to believe in the face of proof. In their extreme thoughts both the categories hold pre conceived notions of astrologers. Unfortunately such pre conceived notions increase the likelihood of bad experience by creating exactly what the person is trying to avoid.
